Decide Yourself

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed By Norway Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read the statements of Norway citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it.

"I had been annoyed by backache and kidney trouble for a long time," says Mrs. Joseph A. Woods, of Summer St., Norway. "I tried many remedies, but got no relief until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Two boxes helped me in every way. I also wish to say that Doan's Kidney Pills cured my little son of kidney weakness and improved his health. You may continue to publish the statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago."

SOUTH WATERFORD.

W. H. Haynes. Passed to higher life very suddenly at his home in South Waterford on Saturday, the 18th inst., Wm. H. Haynes, aged sixty-three years.

He had been in his usual, though not robust health during the winter and attended to his daily work on the day immediately preceding the evening of his passing away.

His daughter, Mrs. C. D. Tarbox (with her two children) had been at the old home during the week, and after enjoying the prattle of the children and reading during the evening, he passed before others of the family. Shortly after, upon hearing an unusual sound from his room his wife hastened to him, but even then the spark of life had fled, and thus ended a life on earth as he had often expressed the wish that it might in his case.

Funeral services conducted by L. F. McKenney were held at the home on Wednesday, the 17th inst., which were simple but very impressive, and attended by a large number of relatives, neighbors and friends. Bear Mountain grange was represented in a body which performed escort duty to the last resting place in Elm Vale cemetery of an old and highly esteemed brother member of the order. The bearers were C. P. Biggs, Geo. A. Miller, C. E. Packard, Geo. L. Hilton. There was a profusion of flowers about the casket which fully attested the love and friendship of many.

Wife, Susan—Mrs. W. H. Haynes. Wreath of roses, Father—Mr. and Mrs. D. Tarbox, Harry. Bouquet pinks and evergreen—Garrie Hamlin.

At flowers—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Howard. Pinks—Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Mason. Pinks—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. B. Haynes. Wreath, cut flowers—Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Haynes. Red and white pinks—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Marr.

Mixed bouquet—Mr. and Mrs. Wade Marr. 83 daybreak pinks—Mrs. M. Monroe and family. Red and white pinks—Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Tarbox.

White pinks—Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hill. Mixed bouquet—Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Packard, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Merrill.

The subject of this brief sketch was born in Waterford, Feb. 11th, 1852, the son of William and Mary Jane (Hoyt) Haynes and has always been a resident of the town of his nativity, and in his passing, Waterford loses one of her old and highly esteemed citizens—a man of sterling worth, whose word was as good as his bond, scrupulously honorable in his dealings with his fellowmen, with an earnest desire to emulate the principle of the Golden Rule. He was keenly alive to the enjoyment and pleasure of others. A genial host, fond of company and always ready to join in the pleasures of old and young.

He married Jane Marr in 1874 and two children were born to them, Edna, who married C. D. Tarbox of Harrison, and Harry N., living at home, who, with the wife are left to mourn the loss of companionship of a loving and indulgent father and husband, and the community will sadly miss the genial and hearty greeting of an ever faithful friend, neighbor and citizen. Besides the immediate family mentioned, Henry, living in Hornell, N. J., Fred B., living in Harmony, Maine, and a sister, Jennie Hammond, living in West Medford, Mass., will mourn the loss of an affectionate brother.

BETHEL.

Nearly 50 Years in Service. After a faithful service extending over a period of 46 years in the railway service, the oldest railway mail clerk in Portland, Charles I. Kimball, of 219 Spring street, retired from active service on February 24 on the anniversary of his first run over the road. Mr. Kimball was born in Bethel, where his father, the late Ira G. Kimball, conducted a general store. Going to Portland, he was appointed as one of the first railroad mail clerks and was given the run between Portland, Boston and New York.

From here he was soon transferred to the Grand Trunk, with a run from Portland to Island Pond, at the New Hampshire line, and return. The first ten years, he says, it was a rare thing to make a trip either way without turning off the track, but with the gradual improvement of the system the trouble gradually disappeared. When the service was first established there were three men in a small car, with a small number of boxes for the mail, but at present eleven men are required to do the work and are provided with a 30-foot car, equipped with 360 compartments.

During his long service Mr. Kimball has lost but one trip from ill health in 46 years, and has helped to break in hundreds of employees of the railway mail. He is at present in rather poor health, from a nervous trouble.

A few of the neighbors of Rev. B. F. Fickett, who is confined to the house by illness, and Mrs. Scott Robertson, helped them to observe their birthdays, Feb. 22. A cherry tree was decorated with fruit and left at Mr. Fickett's door, and later the party spent the afternoon with Mrs. Robertson, bringing with them gifts of fruit, cake, etc., which later was served with ice cream by the hostess. Monday, Mrs. Robertson enjoyed a postcard shower numbering nearly 50 cards.

Osborne, pastor of the Bates street Baptist church performed the ceremony using the double ring service. The bride wore a navy blue traveling suit, with waist of Copenhagen blue marquisette over chiffon.

The parlor was prettily decorated with fir and pink and white roses and the dining room with fir and jonquils by the Lewiston Corn Roasters. After the ceremony refreshments were served. The bride was generously remembered with presents of silver and cut glass and linen. Saturday evening she was given a shower by the Corn Roasters at the home of Mrs. W. H. ## CATARRH OF HEAD AND STOMACH

Took Peruna Five Bottles Cured Me

Mr. Frank Richter, No. 309 East Second St., Winona, Minn., writes: "My catarrh was principally located in my head and stomach. I tried many remedies without success. I tried several doctors, but they were unable to cure me. I read of Peruna in the papers, and five bottles cured me."

"As a remedy for catarrh I take pleasure in recommending Peruna for catarrh of the stomach. I know what it is to be afflicted with this awful disease and consider it my duty to say a word in behalf of the remedy which gave me such relief. Peruna cured me, and I know it will cure any one else who suffers from this disease. It gives me great pleasure to testify to the curative effects of this medicine. Peruna is a well tested and frequently used remedy, and for catarrh of the stomach it is unsurpassed."

As a rule, people when ailing apply very properly to a doctor before resorting to a ready-to-take medicine. The great majority are cured by the doctor. But a per cent of chronic cases fail to find a cure and at last begin to use ready-to-take medicines. It is very noticeable indeed the number of people among our testifiers who say that it was only after the doctor had failed to cure them that they were induced to take Peruna. Then they find to their relief, to their surprise, to their joy, that Peruna is the remedy they should have taken."

Not Paint.

The worst mistake in painting is not putting off. That costs about 10 percent you keep your money a year and pay 10 percent for it. Paint would have to come down 25 percent to make 10 percent on the job, for wages do not go down. The worst mistake is "cheap" paint. It costs from 50 percent to 100, first cost, and another in wear. What a liar, "cheap" is. "Put-off" is had enough; "cheap" is ten times worse.

ALBANY.

Brice Kimball.

The people in this vicinity were saddened to learn of the sudden death of Brice Kimball of North Albany, who has been a life long resident of Albany, and lived near the foot of George Pond.

When he was a young man he worked near Hunt's Corner for several seasons on the farm then owned by Col. S. P. Haskell, near the cemetery.

He was a very kind and obliging man and would often put himself out for the sake of helping a friend or neighbor. When anyone wanted an accommodation they knew just who to call on to get it.

The funeral was held Wednesday, Feb. 24.

John Allen, Howard Allen's youngest boy, had a present the other day of a horse from his aunt, Mrs. John Flint of North Fryeburg.

We have been having regular March weather for a week or more, but look out for March.

Frank Grover and Bert Brown have got Herbert Bear's timber all hauled. Abel and Arthur Andrews have their timber most all hauled. George Cummings has got Guy Cummings' pulp wood hauled, about 60 cords and part of his own hauled. There never was known to so much timber hauled out of this town in one winter before. If they go on at this rate two or three years more there will not be a hemlock or spruce tree in town large enough to get a good sill out for a house or barn. There have been 40 horses and 12 oxen and steers hauled quite a share of the time the past winter. It begins to look some like old times when you come to it, eight oxen and steers passing through Hunt's Corner loaded with wood and timber.

George Cummings has four good steers, Howard Allen one good pair and Robt. Stearns one good pair oxen and Arthur Bear four good oxen. Most of the pulp wood was hauled to the Greenwood brook near W. Holt's.

The sick ones around here are all on the gain.

There was a good crowd at the dance held Feb. 20, at the Townhouse. There will be another dance at the Townhouse, Feb. 27, and dance at the Grange hall, Mar. 1.

The next Ladies' Circle will be held on Thursday, March 4, at the church vestry. Harry and Will McNally are going to cut wood for A. G. Bean.

Mrs. Lizzie Merrill is at the corner helping Nancy Andrews a few days. Ernest Paine is hauling pulp for Ora Saunders.

WEST PARIS.

The Southern Melody Aftermath.

The Southern Melody Concert has been under the auspices of the Ladies' Social Circle of the Baptist church, was a decided success. The numbers were all taken in fine shape and the entire program with the exception of one "Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground" was omitted, went off very smoothly and pleasantly.

As some on the program printed last week were assigned with fictitious or no names, it might be well to mention them. The Ladies Quartettes were colored and dressed in white, wore the four school teachers, Misses Wall, Burnham, Chaudler and Parker, who have very sweet voices. They sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," repeating the tune with humming to close. Their second number, "Swing Low," was responded to an encore with a parody verse "Foot, Foot, the Old Grand Trunk, etc." "O Susan," sung by a "yaller gal" was Mrs. Mary Stetson in make-up costume, who acted out the song in real darkey style, was very funny and caused a good deal of merriment and applause.

The mixed quartette were Miss Berry, Mrs. White and Messrs. Churchill and Grover, whose voices. They sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," repeating the tune with humming to close. Their second number, "Swing Low," was responded to an encore with a parody verse "Foot, Foot, the Old Grand Trunk, etc." "O Susan," sung by a "yaller gal" was Mrs. Mary Stetson in make-up costume, who acted out the song in real darkey style, was very funny and caused a good deal of merriment and applause.

The character reading by "Matilda and Ida" were Mrs. R. T. Flavin and her son Arthur. This number has received a good many compliments. They were dressed in costume, she with white dress, red sash and neck ribbon, red ribbons on her black wool hair, and he with white pants, a neat brown suit coat with a big red chain-stitch button-hole bouquet, and if one has ever read Lawrence Dunbar's poem "Encouragement," he will appreciate the funny love making of the girl of her bashful lover, Ike Johnson.

"Mammy" was impersonated by Mrs. White with her youngest pickaninny, Vichell Wood, in her lap and an old one, Truman Emery, while she sang the good night song. "When Malinda Sings," another of Dunbar's poems, describing Southern life, was very beautiful done by Mrs. A. D. Conburn, also dressed in a darkey mammy style, and brought great applause.

"Sambo" was no less than Edgar L. Wood, who has been enjoyed before in negro impersonations and he was equally good in this. "Zip Coon" song. He was called back twice.

Howard McKen was a great addition with his violin on the various pieces. He sweetly played an echo behind the curtain in the chorus of "Old Black Joe" and guitar accompaniment to "O Suanna."

All the other solos and chorus work were well done. The "Circle" feels very grateful to all who so kindly contributed to the success of the whole affair.

Rev. Seth Benson was taken ill Tuesday, which terminated in pneumonia and he passed away early Wednesday morning.

Rev. Benson was 73 years old last September. He has been very poorly for some time. The funeral will be held Friday at one o'clock at the Baptist church. Rev. L. W. Raymond will speak and the Baptist quartette will furnish music.
